

15th - 21st April

Breaking News

Martians have landed!!! On 15th April 2011 hundreds of jugglers have descended onto Nottingham Harvey Hadden sports centre for nearly a week of juggling fun and frolics. If you see these strange creatures, they are completely safe and are known to perform following shouts of "it can't be done". Nottingham welcomes this new species and is looking forward to a spectacular week!!! Welcome to the British Juggling convention 2011!

We Come in Peace

[and Quiet!]

Please be mindful that we have landed our mothership in a residential area, therefore please keep noise to a minimum outside the centre after 11pm, especially in the camping area. The centre has excellent relationships with the local residents and we wish to uphold this and have a trouble free event. Thanks in advance!

We are hugely privileged this year to be welcoming the Ladybird project to the BJC. They will be hosting workshops for all aged aliens! Please be reminded that all children attending the ladybird project area must be accompanied by an adult. All Ladybird staff are CRB checked and there is free entry for all convention goers.

Convention Pass

This is your proof that you have paid, you will need it to access all areas of the convention. Your show ticket will be required to enter the Nottingham royal concert hall for the Gala show. Please keep these SAFE at all times. If you lose them you will be required to pay again!

Shows

We have a great line up of shows for you at the BJC this year! The majority of shows will be held in our on site theatre within the Dark Matter Hall.

Alcohol MUST NOT be consumed in THIS hall. Anybody who takes alcohol into the hall will be asked to leave immediately.

Volunteers Needed

The BJC has been organised by volunteers and the success of the event relies on people giving up just a small amount of their convention time to help support the event.

We have a whole host of volunteering jobs to get involved with so visit the information desk to put your name down and begin your badge collection, and to show that we appreciate that extra bit of dedication there will be additional rewards for hard workers.

However you can enjoy a Romulan ale or ten at the Renegade in the Mothership.

Glowing Merchandise

A first in the BJC universe. This year we have a real treat for you.

Genuine phosphorescent glowey tshirts and hoodies for you to enjoy. We can't wait to see you guys glowing in the renegade.

If you haven't ordered already, they're available from the Info Desk in the Mothership. Make sure you get yours before they sell out.

If demand is high we will do a post-convention order.

Thank You

There are a lot of people who have given up a phenomenal number of hours of this past year to make this event possible. If you see any one of them please show your appreciation, a pat on the back, a simple thank you and especially if you see an organiser rocking back and forth in a corner, coax them out and give them a hug.

We think you'll really enjoy this years BJC!!!

With love and beardy snogs from the BJC2011 Team xxx

BJC2011 Live

A BJC First! The BJC NEWS Will be being video streamed direct to the whole world through Nathan Rae productions throughout the whole event! If you are a bit camera shy and do not wish to be filmed please just mention this to the man with the camera.

A FEW SITE RULES

It is prohibited to take illegal substances on site or to smoke in any of the enclosed areas.

no pets (except guide dogs).

No open fires allowed on Harvey Hadden sports centre or either of the school sites.

Please keep the site clean.

That's it :-)

Safety and Security

While we have made every effort to ensure your safety and security, this is an open site so please ensure you, and especially your children are safe when moving between areas.

Also we can all help by being vigilant of non-convention goes onsite. If there is anything suspicious please do not try and handle the situation yourself but alert one of the employed security guards or crew.

There will be limited space in the crew room to leave small high value items for short periods. This is also at your own risk. Please ask at the information desk.

REMEMBER: Do not leave any valuables in your tent or car.

First Aid

If you have an accident or are in need of medical assistance. All centre staff and employed security personnel are first aid accredited and will be able to help you.
